INTRODUCTION

On the rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the compiled service records of soldiers who served in the American Army during the Revolutionary War. The compiled service records consist of one or more jacket-envelopes for each soldier containing card abstracts of entries relating to that soldier from original records. These compiled and original records are part of the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, Record Group 93.

The American forces during the Revolutionary War included many types of military organizations created by the Continental Congresses, the States, towns, and counties. The Regular units authorized by the Continental Congresses formed the Continental Army, but this Army was frequently supplemented by units of militia and volunteers from the States. The compiled service records reproduced in this microfilm publication contain records for the Regular soldiers of the Continental Army and for the militia, volunteers, and others who served with them. The larger entity is referred to in this publication as the American Army.

In 1775 the Continental Congress took command of the forces of the New England colonies besieging Boston and instituted the first of a series of major reorganizations of the Army. In resolutions of November 4, 1775, the Continental Congress authorized the establishment of a Continental Army of 20,372 men. Each regiment was to contain 728 men, divided among eight companies; and each company was to consist of a captain, two lieutenants, an ensign, four sergeants, four corporals, two fifers or drummers, and 76 privates.¹ Additional regiments, sometimes containing fewer men, were authorized by the Continental Congresses for such purposes as the Canadian campaigns² and the defense of the Southern States.³ Many of the authorized regiments in this and later reorganizations were never completely filled.

Another major reorganization of the Army was authorized in resolutions of September 16, 1776. The Continental Congress ordered the enlistment of 88 battalions (or regiments) for the duration of the war and apportioned those battalions among the States as follows: New Hampshire, three; Massachusetts, 15; Rhode Island, two; Connecticut, eight; New York, four; New Jersey, four; Pennsylvania, 12; Delaware, one; Maryland, eight; Virginia, 15; North Carolina, nine; South Carolina, six; and Georgia, one. The States were to recruit the soldiers and appoint the officers for their battalions, although the officers would be formally commissioned by the Continental Congress.⁴

In 1778 the Continental Congress authorized the reduction of the Army to 80 battalions, each containing 585 men.⁵ In October 1780 the Congress further reduced the Army by ordering that, after January 1, 1781, the Continental Army consist of four regiments of cavalry or light dragons, four regiments of artillery, 49 regiments of infantry (excluding Colonel Hazen's regiment), and one regiment of artificers.⁶ Finally, the Continental Congress on June 2, 1784, directed the commanding officer to discharge all the troops in the service of the United States, retaining only 80 privates, with a proportionate number of officers, to guard the stores at Fort Pitt, West Point, and other magazines.

A typical infantry regiment in the Continental Army, generally referred to in this publication as a regiment or battalion without the designation "infantry," might contain field officers, such as a colonel, lieutenant colonel, and major; a regimental staff, including an adjutant, quartermaster, surgeon, surgeon's mate, paymaster, and chaplain; and eight to 10 companies.

Cavalry and artillery regiments were organized in a similar way, although cavalry companies were frequently called troops. Artillery companies included specialized soldiers, such as bombardiers, gunners, and matrosses. The soldiers in artillery regiments often functioned individually, or in small groups, rather than as a regiment.

Artificers were civilian or military mechanics and artisans employed by the Army to provide necessary services. Artificer companies included carpenters, blacksmiths, wheelwrights, harness makers, coopers, nailers, and farriers.

History of the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records

Most of the records of the American Army in the custody of the War Department were destroyed by fire on November 8, 1800. The War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records was begun in 1873 when Secretary of War William Belknap made the first of several purchases of Revolutionary War records for the Department. By War Department orders of July 3 and 16, 1889, a Record and Pension Division was established to take custody of the military records of the Volunteer Armies of the United States and to *transact the pension and other business of the Department connected with those records. The Division was designated the Record and Pension Office of the War Department by an act of May 9, 1892 (27 Stat. 27), and Col. Fred C. Ainsworth became Chief of the Office. At Ainsworth's instigation, Congress passed acts on July 27, 1892 (27 Stat. 275), and August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 403), that directed the other executive departments of the Federal Government to transfer military records of the Revolutionary War in their possession to the War Department. The last major addition to the collection was in 1914-15 when the War Department made photographic copies of Revolutionary War records in the possession of individuals and institutions in several States to supplement the original records.

Compiled Military Service Records

The compilation of military service records from the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records was begun in 1894 under the direction of Colonel Ainsworth. The abstracts made from the original records were verified by a separate operation of comparison, and great care was taken to ensure that the abstracts and the indexes were accurate.

The service records consist of a jacket-envelope for each soldier, labeled with his name, his rank, and the unit or special corps in which he served. The jacket-envelope contains card abstracts of entries relating to the soldier as found in original muster rolls; payrolls; rank rolls; inspection, provision, and clothing returns; receipts for pay and bounty; accounts for subsistence, pay, rations, clothing, and ordnance; abstracts of muster and pay rolls; and correspondence. Abstracts were also made from 24 of the numbered record books in the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, Volumes 1-11, 13 1/2, 136 1/2, 139, 142, 143, 145, 147, 1/2, 170-173, 175, and 176. There are cross-references for soldiers' names that appeared in the records under more than one spelling.

Frequently preceding the jacket-envelopes for individual soldiers in each organizational unit are similar envelopes containing caption cards for muster rolls, payrolls, or other records. The cards show the exact captions of documents that were copied for each organization and the certificates of officers verifying the accuracy of the records. Jacket-envelopes for general pay abstracts precede those for other caption cards, and printed caption cards for general pay abstracts usually reproduce the entire pay abstract. Jacket-envelopes with caption cards for an entire regiment precede those containing caption cards for the field and staff and individual companies.

The compiled service records are arranged under the designation "Continental Troops" or a State name, thereunder by organization, and thereunder alphabetically by soldier's surname. The military organizations designated "Continental Troops" were generally State units adopted by the Continental Congress in the first years of the Revolutionary War or units raised in more than one State. Regular units of the Continental Army that were raised in only one State are generally listed with that State's military organizations.

The organizations for the Continental Troops and for each State are arranged in two major groups, according to the size of the organization. The larger military units, including regiments, battalions, detachments, corps, brigades, and legions, precede the smaller units, such as companies, parties, troops, or commands. Companies, parties, troops, or commands, however, that were an integral part of larger organizations are generally arranged within the larger organizations. Within the two major groups according to size, units with numerical designations precede units with nominal designations. Thus, the arrangement of the compiled service records for South Carolina organizations is as follows: First Regiment - Sixth Regiment, Casey's Regiment - Thomson's Regiment, First Company - Third Company, and Butler's Company - Captain Michael Watson's Company.

An appendix to this introduction lists the units of the Continental Troops and of each State in three categories: all units with numerical designations, all units with nominal designations, and miscellaneous units. Organizations with both numerical and nominal designations are listed under both categories but are arranged on microfilm according to the number designation. When several organizations have the same number designation, an alphabetical order is followed with battalions, corps, and detachments preceding regiments, and artillery regiments preceding infantry regiments and regiments of light dragoons.

Because the military units of the Continental Army were frequently reorganized, there are sometimes several series of compiled service records for the different formations of a unit, all bearing the same name or number designation. When the records for each formation are maintained separately, the year the formation was organized is sometimes included, in parentheses, in its title. The Connecticut records, for instance, include a "Seventh Regiment (1775)" and a "Seventh Regiment (1776)."

When a consolidation of several regiments was made, the new organization was sometimes labeled with the designations of the several regiments involved. An example is the Virginia organization designated the "Fourth, Eighth, and Twelfth Regiment." The compiled service records for several Virginia consolidated regiments contain empty jacket-envelopes labeled with the names of the soldiers in the regiment and the locations of the jacket-envelopes containing all the card abstracts for those soldiers.

Military organizations without a number or name designation are arranged at the end of the series to which they belong. Thus, the Regiment Extraordinary (Maryland) is placed at the end of the alphabetical series of Maryland regiments. Miscellaneous smaller organizations, such as the Field Artillery Company (New Hampshire), are arranged at the end of the alphabetical series of companies for New Hampshire.

Soldiers' names that are incomplete due to the mutilation or deterioration of the original records are arranged at the end of the compiled service records for their units. Soldiers, employees, or other personnel of the American Army with only a first name in the original records are listed by that name in the compiled service records.

At the end of the records for the Continental Troops is a series labeled "Miscellaneous," consisting of compiled records of soldiers' names that cannot be identified with a particular military unit. The series also includes high-ranking officers of the American Army who were associated with many military organizations. Likewise, a miscellaneous series labeled merely with the States' name exists at the end of the records for each State, except Georgia, to serve a similar function. For instance, the series labeled "Pennsylvania" was taken from such records as a list of officers who were paroled prisoners on Long Island, a list of prisoners from different regiments in General Wayne's division, a "Return of the Pennsylvania Line, entitled to donation lands, reported by the late Comptroller General," and an account book entitled The State of Pennsylvania Against the United States for Depreciation on Pay of the Army.

The designations of military units in this microfilm publication are generally reproduced exactly as they appear on compiled service records and on index cards.

Indexes

Within Record Group 93, several name indexes contain entries from the military service records reproduced in this microfilm publication. The most comprehensive name index to the records is available as National Archives Microfilm Publication General Index to Compiled Military Service Records of Revolutionary War Soldiers (M860). Various parts of the General Index are also available separately as follows: Index to Compiled Service Records of Revolutionary War Soldiers Who Served With the American Army in North Carolina Organizations (M257); Index to Compiled Service Records of American Naval Personnel Who Served During the Revolutionary War (M879); and additional unpublished indexes to the names of soldiers serving in organizations from the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, and Virginia.

Related Records in the National Archives

Although some references to employees, prisoners of war, and other persons associated with the American Army are included in the records reproduced in this microfilm publication, most of the Revolutionary War compiled service records for persons other than soldiers have been published as Compiled Service Records of American Naval Personnel and Members of the Departments of the Quartermaster General and the Commissary General of Military Stores Who Served During the Revolutionary War (M880).

The original records and copies of records from which the Revolutionary War compiled service records were made are available on Revolutionary War Rolls, 1775-1783 (M246), and Numbered Record Books Concerning Military Operations and Service, Pay and Settlement of Accounts, and Supplies in the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records (M853). Notations in the lower left corner of the card abstracts frequently indicate the file or volume number of the original record copied.

Notations on card abstracts also sometimes refer to numbers preceded by the initials "R & P." These references are to file citations in the general correspondence of the Record and Pension Office of the War Department, in the Records of the Adjutant General's Office, 1780's-1917, Record Group 94. The index to this correspondence series is available as Index to General Correspondence of the Record and Pension Office, 1889-1904 (M686).

Pension and bounty land warrant application files based on the Service of Revolutionary War military and naval personnel are in the Records of the Veterans Administration, Record Group 15. They have been reproduced as Revolutionary War Pension and Bounty-Land-Warrant Application Files (M804), and Selected Records From Revolutionary War Pension and Bounty-Land-Warrant Application Files (M805).

The War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, Record Group 93, contains two other publications relating to the American Army: Miscellaneous Numbered Records (The Manuscript File) in the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, 1775-1790's (M859), and Special Index to Numbered Records in the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, 1775-1783 (M847). The record group also contains other series of unnumbered record books and photographic copies of some State records.

Journals, correspondence, and other records of the Continental and Confederation Congresses are among the Records of the Continental and Confederation Congresses and the Constitutional Convention, Record Group 360. These records have been microfilmed as Papers of the Continental Congress, 1774-1789 (M247), and Miscellaneous Papers of the Continental Congress, 1774-1789 (M332).

International and Indian Treaties are among the General Records of the United States Government, Record Group 11, and the Indian treaties have been reproduced as Ratified Indian Treaties, 1722-1869 (M668). Ledgers and other fiscal records of the Government of the Revolutionary War period are among the Records of the Bureau of Accounts (Treasury), Record Group 39; the Records of the Bureau of the Public Debt, Record Group 53; the General Records of the Department of the Treasury, Record Group 56; and the Records of the United States General Accounting Office, Record Group 217.

These Introductory remarks were written by Marie Allen.

1400 Continental Building,
Baltimore, Maryland.

The records of this office show that one, Thomas Buck served in the Revolutionary War as a captain of Dummore County Virginia Militia. His name is borne on a morning return dated Oct. 8, 1777, without remark.

The records also show that one John Buck, rank not stated, served in the war mentioned as a member of Capt. Thomas Nelson's Company, 1st Virginia Regiment, commanded by Col. Isaac Read. His name is borne on a roll of the Company for May, 1777, dated June 19, 1777, with remark relative to him, "Died. March."

Nothing further relative to these men has been found of record.

The military records of the Revolutionary War referred to within have not been published.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

Respectfully returned to

Mr. M. B. Archer,
The Farmers & Merchants Bank,
Caldwell, Ohio.

The records of this office show that one James Archer served in the Revolutionary War as a Lieutenant. His name appears on a return of officers and privates of Gaddis' command from Monongalia County, Virginia, for the expedition to the Indian country. Nothing has been found of record to show either the date of his entry into service or the date or manner of his separation therefrom.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D.C.

Dr. Roy D. Owen,
Corington,
Indiana

The records of this office show that one James Chew served in the Revolutionary War as a Major in Geddes' Command, (Monongalia Militia) Virginia Troops. His name appears on a return, not dated, of Officers and Privates from the County of Monongalia for the Expedition to the Indian Country. (Index-ment shows: "Officers under Col. Thomas Geddes for the Indian Expedition in 1778 against the Indian towns West of the Ohio, which lasted 3 months." His name also appears as a signature to an account of Ammunition, etc, in Store at Fort Henry, which account is dated Fort Henry, October 14, 1777. No further record has been found.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information may be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, Virginia or from the Veterans Administration, Washington, D. C., which has custody of the United States pension records.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

WASHINGTON.

MAY 17, 1921.

A. G. 201

(Bowers, George M.) ORO

Hon. George M. Bowers,

House of Representatives.

My dear Sir:

In response to your letter of the 14th instant in which you request the military record of Captain John Minor, who is said to have served in the Revolutionary War and to have commanded Stabler's Fort, Virginia (Fort Virginia), I have the honor to advise you as follows:

Nothing has been found of record in this office relative to the service of a Captain John Minor in the Revolutionary War. However, it appears that a Captain Minor, whose Christian name is not of record in this office, was an officer of Virginia troops within the period of that war.

This Captain Minor is mentioned on an undated return of Officers and Privates from the County of Monongalia for the Expedition to the Indian Country, which return shows that twenty men were drafted out of Captain Minor's Company of Monongalia Militia for said expedition. On the return is the following endorsement: "Officers under Col. Thomas Gaddis for the Indian Expedition in 1778 against the Indian towns East of the Ohio, which lasted 3 months". The force composing the expedition is commonly called Gaddis' Command, Monongalia Militia, of Virginia. No further record of Captain Minor has been found.

The records further show that one John Minor served in that war as a private in Captain Thomas Hill's Company, 7th Virginia Regiment, commanded successively by Lieut. Col. Holt, Richeson and Lieut. Col. William Heath.

He enlisted February 16, 1778, to serve one year, was sick at Valley Forge in the summer of 1778, and died August

1. 1778. It appears that after the war the payment of all was made by the state of Virginia on account of his services. No further record of subsequent funds.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is incomplete. Additional information can possibly be obtained from the Commissioner of Pensions, this city, or from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond.

Very respectfully,

The Adjutant General.

May 14, 1921.

(Bowers, George M.) OMD

Hon. George M. Bowers,
House of Representatives.

My dear Sir:

In response to your letter of the 14th instant in which you request the military record of Captain John Minor, who is said to have served in the Revolutionary War and to have commanded Swatler's Fort, Virginia (West Virginia), I have the honor to advise you as follows:

Nothing has been found of record in this office relative to the service of a Captain John Minor in the Revolutionary War. However, it appears that a Captain Minor, whose Christian name is not of record in this office, was an officer of Virginia troops within the period of that war.

This Captain Minor is mentioned on an undated return of Officers and Privates from the County of Monongalia for the Expedition to the Indian Country, which return shows that twenty men were drafted out of Captain Minor's Company of Monongalia Militia for said expedition. On the return is the following statement: "Officers under Col. Thomas Gadsden for the Indian Expedition in 1778 against the Indian towns West of the Ohio, which lasted 3 months". The force composing the expedition is commonly called Gadsden's Command, Monongalia Militia, of Virginia. No further record of Captain Minor has been found.

The records further show that one John Minor served in that war as a private in Captain Thomas Hill's Company, 7th Virginia Regiment, commanded successively by Lieut. Col. Holt Robeson and Lieut. Col. William Keith.

He enlisted February 16, 1778, to serve one year, was sick at Valley Forge in the summer of 1778, and died August

1. 1770. It appears that after the war the payment of all year was by the State of Virginia on account of his services. No further record of this fund.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is incomplete. Additional information can possibly be obtained from the Custodian of Records, this city, or from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond.

Very respectfully,

The Adjutant General.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

WASHINGTON.

September 8, 1920

Respectfully returned to

Mrs. John W. Pearce,
Colorado, Texas.

The records of this office show that one Amos Ascherast served in the Revolutionary War as a member, rank not stated, of Captain Thomas Gaddis' Company, Virginia Militia, and that he served ninety-three days between September 9th and December 10, 1776. No record has been found of the service in that war of a man of this name in any North Carolina organization. Further information can possibly be obtained from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

The Adjutant General.

Respectfully returned to

Mr. Otho Ashcraft,
Payette, Missouri.

The records of this office show that one Amos Ashcraft served in the Revolutionary War as a member of Capt. Thomas Gaddis' ^{Company} at Fort Liberty. His name appears on a list of officers and privates of that organization, which shows that his service commenced Sept. 9, 1776, ended Dec. 10, 1776, and that he was allowed 93 days' service.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

H. D. McLean
The Adjutant General.

Miss Julia H. Carson,
Greenville,
Ford County, Illinois.

The records of this office show that one John Carson served in the Revolutionary War as ~~Private~~ ^{Private} in Capt. Thomas Gaddis' Company at least liberty from September 9, to October 17, 1776.

The name Micah or Michael Sampson has not been found on the rolls on file in this office of any organization of Massachusetts or Continental troops in service during the War of the Revolution.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Secretary, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Boston, or from the Comptroller of Pensions, Washington, D.C.

It is proper to add that there are no records on file in this Department ^{of} prior to the War of the Revolution.

TBF.

June 12, 1916.

Respectfully returned to

Mr. N. K. Franklin,
Tonopah, Nevada.

An undated list of officers and privates shows that the service of John Gregg, rank not stated, Captain Thomas Gaddis' Company, Virginia Militia, Revolutionary War, commenced September 9, 1776, and ended October 2, 1776. No further record of this soldier has been found, but it is possible that additional information concerning him can be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Penitents, Washington, D. C.

No fees are charged by this Department for its official notes.

H. H. Davis

The Adjutant General.

John O'Hara's Independent Company in tended to have 100 men. For this purpose they sent 100 men to the the Great Kanawha, 300 miles by water below Fort Pitt but were not sent down there till last fall, the river about two years
upon which Capt O'Hara's Company, yours afterwards, landed in Sept.
Nathl's Company, to give the opposite engines of the river to 200 men, with this restriction that they should remain at Kanawha, as only 100

Feb. 18, 1914.

Respectfully returned to

Mrs. G. G. Todd,
Kola, Miss.

The records of this office show that one, William Halley, served in the Revolutionary War as a member of Lt. Col. Cropper's Company, 11th and 15th Virginia Regiment. His name appears on a list dated September 9, 1778, which shows that he enlisted to serve during the war.

The records also show that one, John Halley, served in said war as a member of Capt. James Scott's Company of Virginia Volunteers. His name appears on company payrolls covering the period from February 14 to April 29, 1777, without special remark relative to him.

Nothing further relative to these men has been found of record.

The collection of Revolutionary War records on file in this office, as far from complete and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

The stamped envelope received with this letter is returned herewith.

H. A. H. H.
The Adjutant General.

Oct. 4, 1922.

Respectfully returned to

409 W. Cumberland Avenue,
Knoxville,
Tennessee.

The records of this office show that one William McYride served in the Revolutionary War in Captain James Scott's Virginia Volunteer Company. Neither his rank nor the period of his service is shown. He was paid on rolls covering the period from February 14 to April 29, 1777 for services of 30 days and 45 days respectively.

Neither of the names Andrew Miller, Samuel Drake, John William Crockett, John Crockett or William Crockett has been found on the records of soldiers from Virginia in service in the War of the Revolution.

It is deemed proper to remark that during the Revolutionary War Virginia embraced the territory now known as Kentucky.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information may be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

The inclosed card does not show that John Tomkins had any military service. It shows merely that Captain Scott had some kind of cash transaction at John Tomkins' place for the purchase of "dlets, liquor, forage, and lodging" for some of his men who were sick. It would appear that John Tomkins was an inn-keeper or the proprietor of some such establishment.

11-20-15

December 1, 1915.

Respectfully returned to

Mrs. W. C. Riddick,
West Raleigh, North Carolina.

The records of this office show that one James Daniel served in the Revolutionary War as a Virginia soldier of Infantry, designation of organization not stated. He is shown to have received, on December 19, 1782, a certificate for the balance of his full pay amounting to $56.

The records also show that one James Daniel served in said war as a member of Captain Thomas Watkins's Troop of Dragoons, Virginia Troops. His name appears on one pay roll, not dated, without special remark relative to his service.

Nothing further bearing upon the subject of inquiry has been found of record.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

H. P. McCahill
per V.

The Adjutant General.

(Attach this end.)

File
Dec. 31, 1915.

Respectfully returned to

Mrs. M. T. Norris,
421 North Blount Street,
Raleigh, North Carolina.

The records show that one James Daniel served in the Revolutionary War as a Virginia soldier of Infantry, designation of organization not stated, and that on December 19, 1782, he received a certificate for the balance of his full pay, amounting to $66.

The records also show that one James Daniel served in said war as a member of Captain Thomas Watkins' Troop of Dragons, Virginia Troops. His name appears only on an undated pay roll without special mark relative to his service.

The records of this office afford no further information relative to the above-named man.

The information which this office furnishes relative to the military service of soldiers in the Revolutionary War is taken from original manuscript records on file and not from published volumes.

H. H. W.
The Adjutant General.

Respectfully returned to
Mrs. Wesley Howell,
Carrollton, Missouri.

The records of this office show that one Samuel Venable served as a cornet in Capt. Thomas Watkins' Troop of Dragoons of Virginia, Revolutionary War. His name appears only on an undated pay roll of the troop, which affords no information as to his military service. No record found in this Department of enlistment or discharge, nor has anything been found relative to any other Samuel Venable who is shown to have served in a Virginia organization during the period of the war mentioned.

Heltman's Historical Register of Officers of the Continental Army, 1775-1783, an unofficial publication entitled to credit, contains the following entry: "Venable, Samuel (Va), Lieutenant of Virginia Dragoons at Guilford in March, 1781."

The name Paul Carlington has not been found on the rolls, on file in this office, of any organization of Virginia or Continental troops in service during the War of the Revolution. The collection of records of that war in this office, however, is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that some information relative to the man in question can be obtained from the Library, Va. State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

Respectfully returned to

Mrs. Bel Watkins Burdick,
Monroe, Illinois.

The name of Thomas Watkins, captain, Captain Thomas Watkins's Troop of Virginia Dragoons, General Lawson's Brigade, appears on an undated pay roll of the troop without remark. Nothing has been found of record to show the period of his service, nor has anything been found of record to show that any other person served in a Virginia organization as an officer in the ~~unquestioned~~ ^{War of the Revolution}.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Library, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.
